Exchange students

Neville and Ingrid will be supporting the Tod family at the outgoing exchange student interviews in Gawler on 6 May.

It is still unknown at this stage who will be the incoming exchange student. A Counsellor will need to be identified.

Hosts for the incoming exchange student are Damien and Amy Tiller, Ian and Sophie Tod and Peter and Dianne Arnold. The group will meet to discuss obligations, etc at Mia's presentation on 10 May.

OT Students

The Board approved funding up to $1700 and is interested in continuing the project with the Bowls Night in January, 2019. Peter A to liaise with the hospital.

Peter and/or John to determine if there is a possibility of gaining grant funds for the project.

Birthing Kits Foundation

Greg Mayfield is chasing this up.

Bike Project

Ingrid still to follow up.

Membership/Vocation/Youth

Errappa Camp

The Camp is on this weekend 4th -

Barb, Lianne have been very busy getting everything ready, 25 children going.

National Youth Science Forum

We received a letter from a student requesting support to attend the forum, we will offer our support for nomination but no monetary support.

Rotary Information Night May 31st

If you have any questions or topics for the night please pass on to Phil Johns

Science and Engineering Challenge

Is on July 2nd, at this stage 9 schools that would like to attend. Usually limited to 8 schools but we haven't contacted the University of Newcastle and they will allow 9. With district grants our costs have come down from $12,500 to $8,500.

Club

Thank you to all of next year's board for attending the Leading Rotary Now training in Adelaide last weekend.
