Seafood Night on the 6th October

Volunteers required for the Saturday morning to help set-up please!

Philip Johns filled in as guest Speakersharing his trip to Canada

On the 18th August Philip, Denise and Steve and Debbie headed off to Canada. Philip mentioned he found

Ho Honkong very clean, no beggars and four times the number of skyscrapers than America. They arrived in Toronto after a 14 hour trip, the 4th largest town in America where they spent 3 days

The food was great

The farming country is not as good as us
Laaska was great with a population of 13000

Steve only embarrassed us twice

From the President

Don't forget to indicate your intention re the Sea food Night, the 6th October

Please take note of any sheets going around on the tables

President acknowledged the job that Russel did on the lectern for the Comutor
