GUEST SPEAKER DINO GADALETTA

The Rotary Club of Port Pirie congratulates Dino Gadaleta on the wonderful achievement, this year, of 50 years service to Our Lady of Martyrs Port Pirie Italian Community and 25 years continuous service to the Port Pirie Regional Council. You have also been a long serving member and Past President of this Rotary Club, a Justice of The Peace for many years and Life Member of The Virtus Soccer Club. As we can see, apart from the love of your family and successful business ventures, your life has been dedicated to community service which has culminated in being the instigator and driving force behind the planning, construction and development of the Pt Pirie Molfetta's Fishing Boat Museum.

Dino advised that the Blessing of the Fleet Committee and Italian Community had raised between $50-$55K up to the years 2003/2004 and also obtained a grant from the local council and state government to undertake the construction of the Fishing Boat Museum. Many committee members and community members and volunteers contributed to the project over the years to completion.

The Museum covers a variety of subjects being Molfetta, Religion, Fishing and the history of the
