Peter Ackland New Council CEO

Peter grew up in the country, the son of a banker he spent time in Orroroo, Kadina and then the Riverland. He is married with 2 boys both have finished school, like most growing up he loved his sport playing footy, baseball and tennis. He wanted to be a carpenter when he left school but due to lack of apprenticeship opportunities he ended up working in the local council. First job was raising the flag each day, did bit of everything and through study progressed worked his way up the chain. What he loves about local government is the opportunity to work with the community to do great stuff. Got an opportunity in Minlaton before heading back to the Riverland on the Loxton council.

On moving here they bought a house in Crystal Brook, a renovators delight and sold their house in Loxton.

He is a big believer in working with the community and developing partnerships. By working together and effectively communicating you can do things that everyone benefits from.

In his previous position in Loxton the council worked closely with the local Rotary club setting up a memorandum of understanding between Council and Rotary outlaying how to work collaboratively on local projects. This is something he would like to establish here in Port Pirie.

Graham and Sebastian ready to feed and water the hungry walkers and their owners.
