ROTARIAN CODE OF CONDUCT

As a Rotarian, I will:

1. Act with integrity and high ethical standards in my personal and professional life
2. Deal fairly with others and treat them and their occupations with respect
3. Use my professional skills through Rotary to mentor young people, help those with special needs, and improve people's quality of life in my community and in the world
4. Avoid behaviour that reflects adversely on Rotary or other Rotarians

Notes from Meeting 1st February 2018

Directors

Please send your committee minutes to

SPOTS

President Barry

We received a certificate of appreciation from the Australia day committee for our efforts this year.

Two submissions have been made for District Awards this year. One for Community and one for Youth, both recognising our involvement in those programmes.

Club Assembly

Club Committee

Virtus Soccer Club – Members were happy with our first evening at the new venue. The sound system needs improvement and this is to be arranged. Out of respect for our hosts, it is recommended that no committee meetings are to be held at the club.

Red Ned Night – Appreciation to Brian Condon for hosting the event once again. Do we in future invite partners or do we do something different with the concept?

Birthing Kits – Club will buy 200 birthing kits for $600, as decided by board. These to be assembled by members after Rotarians attend “hands-on” birthing kit assembly activity at Barossa Conference in March. Greg to organise.

Committees – Criteria to be circulated outlining roles of each committee for the year.

Graham Nichols – well done to Graham for organising the meal at the yacht club on January 18.

Community Committee

Quoted Weight Watchers for catering on 7th May

Carols in the Park went well

Tagalong tour in May has a sub-committee of Graham, Denis, Mario, Dieter, Lianne and Mark T.

Bowls night Success and proceeds go to the Food Hub.

Committee Chairmen need to send minutes of their meetings to the Bulletin Editor for inclusion in the Bulletin. It's the best way for all members to keep abreast of what is happening in the Club!
