Notes from Meeting 25th October 2018

Guest Speaker - James Holyman

Pickets and Posts..... James provided information re options to purchase pickets around the new oval. There are 3 pricing options available Gold, Silver and Bronze. Approx 4000 pickets available, with the posts having all been purchased by "Come see Change". Funds to be retained and used to support Youth Projects in the future.

James also provided an update on the Solar Panel Scheme currently being implemented for residents.

Next Thursday's meeting (November 1) will be a test run for the assembly of the Third World birthing kits. Part of this trial will involve slicing motel soaps in half for inclusion in the kits. The soap has been sponsored by Dave Cretan's Food Plus so please support him where possible.

Luukas gave the club an update on his recent activities, both locally and on his weekend away. He advises he had some very unique experiences whilst away.

Dieter is seeking some additional assistance with erecting and removing the stage 3rd November (up) and a BBQ between 4-7pm

.....
Driver Reviver figures were provided by Graham Nichols post the recent long weekend, in summary

The stop was open for 75 hours, which equals 165 volunteer hours and 386 people utilized the service with donations equaling the visitors, being $386.00

Presidents Spot.....* Reminder re quiz night 10th November

- We wish John Rowe well after his recent operation
- I encourage all members to support the silver bowl donations, as these funds assist with the expenses for the exchange student Luukas
